Paul Corke – Founder, Leadership Architect & Speaker

Paul is an experienced leadership and mindset expert who provides motivational and keynote speaking to inspire and engage his audiences to think different. He is the author of three self-help books with his latest Reframe Your Mindset: Redefine Your Success recently nominated for the Business Book Awards 2020 in the Personal Development Category. Paul is also the founder of Leadership Architecture, an innovative leadership consultancy which builds leadership capability to enhance the culture & profitability of organisations. And prior to this Paul has over 25 years' experience working in the financial services in organisational effectiveness and leadership development winning awards for leadership development strategy.

Paul will speak on his latest book where he will talk about the 'Mindset Equation' for success that we can all learn from to be the best version of ourselves.

The Change Agent KD – Karen Deas

A successful marketing director reputed as an industry influencer and innovator. Also known for running successful PR, marketing and business development businesses, specialising in retail, leisure and BID's (Business Improvement Districts) for 15 years.

In the last few years Karen had a career change and perused her obsession for personal development. Took on qualifications in NLP, Performance Coaching as well as Transpersonal Coaching and is now living her true passion as a Life Coach.

With her down to earth character, professional background and love to see people do well, this makes her a standout life coach. She has helped many people, either through 121 coaching or group workshops and now works with businesses in support their employees surround their wellness as well as personal growth and work goals.

Her pillars of service on workshops are understanding the nature of our ego, the law of vibration, self-care as well as confidence building.

Karen is also a Nominee for Outstanding Newcomer, best new female led business on the block at #WIBA20 Downtown In Business, coming up on 6th March.